Usage

Portable office station - easily put into a briefcase, and build a dual-screen efficient office environment at any time.

Home audio-visual center - connect to TV to create a 4K cinema, support multi-platform streaming media seamless switching.

E-sports entertainment box - low-latency streaming 3A masterpieces, the bedroom becomes a game console in seconds.

Smart home central control - 7×24 hours silent operation, unified management of IoT devices in the whole house.

Digital advertising machine - invisible drive in supermarkets/exhibition halls, looping high-definition promotional content.

Educational experimental platform - compatible with programming/robot/AI teaching, a tool for students to develop creativity.

Mobile design cabin - plug and play PS/CAD software, a must-have artifact for designers on business trips.

Emergency backup machine - pre-installed with multiple systems, replace faulty computers for emergency rescue at critical moments.

Geek toys - flash the machine to play Linux/black apple, and freely toss development and testing.

Edge computing node - factory/warehouse IoT data preprocessing terminal.

Technology

The all-metal one-piece body is created using micron-level precision stamping technology, and the internal three-dimensional stacking technology is used to achieve nano-level component alignment. It is combined with a liquid metal heat dissipation layer and vacuum coating anti-interference treatment, and has undergone -40 ~ 85 extreme environment cycle testing to ensure that the miniaturized body has military-grade impact resistance and electromagnetic shielding performance.

Selling Points

Master of invisible space - only the size of a palm, easily hidden behind the monitor or between bookshelves, completely liberating desktop space.

Silent black technology - 0 decibel fanless design, no disturbance for late night office/movie watching, enjoy absolute silence.

Transformers interface - hidden multi-functional docking station, one-click pop-up to meet the connection needs of all-scenario peripherals.

Artistic appearance - aerospace aluminum + magnetically replaceable color shell, not only a tool but also a desktop decoration.

Lightning deployment system - 3 seconds fast boot, plug and play without waiting, emergency office artifact.

Energy-saving pioneer - standby power consumption is less than 5W, the annual electricity bill is ≈ a cup of coffee, environmentally friendly and saves money.

Travel office cabin - passport size + shockproof design, set up a mobile workstation at any time during business trips.

Intelligent ecological core - automatic identification of access devices, mobile phones/tablets/TVs become cross-screen collaboration terminals in seconds.

Theory

It adopts heterogeneous computing architecture and modular interconnection design, realizes highly concentrated functions through chip-level system integration, uses phase change material heat conduction and aerodynamic air ducts to achieve noiseless heat dissipation, and cooperates with adaptive power consumption adjustment algorithm to complete full-scenario computing tasks within the size of a postage stamp, while supporting hardware function expansion and cross-platform collaborative computing.
